

Students' Representative Council - Meeting Minutes
March 5th, 2024
Beveridge Forum

In the Acadia Students' Union, we acknowledge that we are in Mi'kma'ki, the ancestral and unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq. We recognize that we are all treaty people and have commitments to each other and the land in which we live, learn, work, and play upon. As a Students' Union, we commit ourselves to continuous learning about how we can engage in meaningful action towards truth, reconciliation, and justice.

4. Standing Items

a) Committee Chairs

Ben McCulley said that the Election Committee met. Governance committee is also meeting, and the by-weekly time was changed. Student life committee met and Genna gave update on this. Brad explains that finance met once. They approved funding for Fletcher Club and the Axe. He explained that there are some difficulties with this due to the high level of staff turnover.

b) President

President is absent.

c) Chair of Council

BIRT that Sam Taylor be excused from attending the March 5th SRC meeting for a class component.

Moved by Julia

Second by Genna

Motion Approved.

5. Unfinished Business

6. New Business

For Decision

a) Senate Committee Appointments

Note that Senate Committee appointments should have happened earlier in the year but is not getting done until now. The ASU gets to appoint 4 senators. VP academic usually sits on senate as well as the three senators. Graduate and Theology appoint their own senators. There is some confusion surrounding appointments to the senate. Ben McCulley suggested that it might be best to postpone appointments until Sadie and Ben Morris are at the meeting.

BIRT the Senate Committee Appointments be tabled until our next meeting.

Moved by Isabelle

Seconded by Emma

Motion Approved

a) By-Election

BIRT the By-Election be tabled until our next meeting.
